INTRODUCTION

“A people which takes no pride in the noble “achievements of remote ancestors will never “achieve anything worthy to be remembered
“with pride by remote descendants.”

—Macaulay's History of England.

The accompanying lists of officers, who served during the War of 1812-15, are compiled from the records of the grants of land made in Upper Canada to officers, non-commissioned officers and men who had served in “the first flank Companies, the Provincial Artillery, the Incorporated Regiment, the Corps of Artillery Drivers, the Provincial Dragoons, the Marine and General Staff of the Army,”* and in Lower Canada, to “the officers and men of the Embodied Militia, discharged troops and others.”**

All those who participated in the Prince Regent's Bounty, as these land grants were called, are indicated by a star in front of their respective names.

The names of those who received land grants as above have been supplemented by names from pay lists, appointments and promotions as published in Militia Orders, returns, petitions and correspondence in the office of the Archivist and Keeper of the Records, Arthur G. Doughty, C. M. G., L. L. D., to whom and his assistant officers I am more than indebted for the facilities and courtesy which have always been afforded me in my searches.

The foot notes, in addition to what could be obtained at the Archives, have been gathered from Army Lists, Obituaries in local newspapers, military magazines, etc., etc.

The sources of information from whence the names of the survivors who, in 1847, received the "General Service Medal, 1793-1814,"† are derived, were:—

- (1)—A list of Veterans of 1812-15 in Upper and Lower Canada to whom medals were granted. (Canadian Archives.)
- (2)—The Army List for July, 1851.
- (3)—A list published in the "United Service Magazine" (1849, parts 2 and 3.)

The names of the recipients of "Gold Medals" are taken from Sir H. Nicholas' "History of the Orders of British Knighthood."

The list of the Regimental Officers of the Regular Army were, for various reasons, withdrawn; the present printed material being substituted.

I desire to acknowledge most gratefully the obligations I am under to Miss Shanly, of Toronto, Mr. Avern Pardoe, Librarian Ontario Legislature, and Mr. Marmaduke Wilson, his Assistant, Lt.-Colonel E. Cruikshank, F.R.S.C., Lt.-Colonel C. S. Jones and the gentlemen of his staff in the Crown Lands Department, Toronto, as well as to Mr. Hector Caron, of the same Department at Quebec; nor must my sincere thanks be withheld from Lt.-Colonel A. L. Jarvis, I.S.O., and Mr. Errol Bouchette, F.R.S.C., two gentlemen whose grandfathers' and great grandfathers' services are recorded herein.

INFANTRY.—The 1st or Royal Scots Regiment. The first Battalion came to Canada in August, 1812, leaving again in July, 1815. Lt.-Col. John Gordon, the commanding officer, who had been mentioned in despatches for Fort Niagara, was wounded at Chippawa, and mortally wounded at Fort Erie, dying on the 25th September, 1814. A mural slab in Montreal testifies to his brother-officers' high esteem for him as a man and their respect for his character as a soldier. The regiment saw service at Sackett's Harbour, Fort Niagara (Grenadier Company), Black Rock, Buffalo, Longwood, Chippawa, Lundy's Lane, Fort Erie (both at the assault and the sortie), and also Cook's Mills. The fourth battalion did duty at Quebec from 26th June, 14, to July, 15 ; the left wing was wrecked on Anticosti, losing all its arms and baggage. The Royal Scots were granted the right to bear "Niagara" on its colours.

The 3rd Regiment (the Buffs). Arrived in Canada from Bourdeaux, France, about 1st August, 1814. It formed part of Sir M.

Power's Brigade, the others being the 5th, 27th and 58th Regiments. It left Canada 4th June, 1815, having taken part in the attack on Plattsburg.

The 5th or Northumberland Regiment disembarked at Sorel 7th August, 1814. It served at Plattsburg, and was later stationed at LaPrairie and Coteau-du-Lac. In 1815 three companies were at Johnstown, the other seven being quartered along the banks of the St. Lawrence. It embarked for Europe 8th June, 1815.

The 6th (First Warwickshire) embarked at Bourdeaux, arriving in Canada early in July, 1814; left Canada for Ostend in July the following year. With the 82nd, it formed General Brisbane's Brigade and took part in the sortie, Fort Erie.

The 8th or King's was represented by its first battalion, which came to Canada from Nova Scotia by sea, arriving at Quebec 28th May, 1810. It left Canada again in June, 1815. The second battalion marched on snowshoes from St. John's, N. B., to Quebec in March, 1814; these being six companies commanded by Major T. Evans; 230 seamen for service on the lakes were also in the party; it returned the same time as the first battalion, having taken part at Plattsburg. The first battalion was actively engaged at Ogdensburg, York (27th April, 1813), Sackett's Harbour (five companies under Major Evans), Stoney Creek (under Major Ogilvie), Black Rock, Buffalo, Chippawa, Lundy's Lane and the assault and sortie at Fort Erie. It also was permitted to bear "Niagara."

The 9th (East Norfolk) arrived at Montreal from Bourdeaux, 22nd August, 1814. In September it was stationed near Fort Wellington (Prescott, U. C.); in October at Kingston, which station it left in June, 15, for England. Like the 88th, "Not one soldier of the Ninth forsook its colours."

The 13th (First Somersetshire), under Lt.-Colonel William Williams, arrived at Quebec from Port Royal, Martinique, 28th June, 1813, returning to Portsmouth 15th July, 1815. It served entirely in Lower Canada, taking part at Plattsburg, Odelltown and LaColle.

The 16th (Bedfordshire) Regiment embarked in Ireland for Quebec, where it arrived 29th May, 1814, sailing for Portsmouth about the same date as the 13th. It was stationed at Quebec, Chamby, Montreal and Fort Wellington, the latter in October, 1814.

The 27th (Inniskilling). The first and third battalions came from Bourdeaux in August, 1814. Both were engaged in the expedition to Lake Champlain. The first battalion was sent to New Orleans after the battle to re-inforce the troops there. The third landed at Ostend 15th July, 1815.

The 37th (North Hampshire). The first battalion embarked at

Pouliac for Canada in 1814; arrived 3rd August. It remained here until 1826.

The 39th (Dorsetshire). Its first battalion arrived in Canada from the south of France in August, 1814. Served in expedition to Plattsburg; landed at Ostend a month after Waterloo had been fought.

The 41st (2nd Somersetshire). The first battalion came to Canada from Ireland in 1800. Its services were at Detroit, Queenston, Miami, Frenchtown, Fort George, Stoney Creek, Fort Stephenson, Black Rock, Fort Niagara, Lundy's Lane, Fort Erie (assault). It has the honour of bearing "Niagara" on its colours. Its Lieut.-Colonels were Henry Procter, Evans and the Marquis of Tweeddale.

The 49th (Hertfordshire). The first battalion embarked for Canada in 1803. Brock, Sheaffe and Vincent were its successive commanding officers. In 1812 it was engaged at Frenchman's Creek and Salmon River; in 1813 at York, Fort George, Beaver Dam, Black Rock and Chrystler's Farm.

The 57th (West Middlesex). Its first battalion arrived 3rd August, 1814, from the south of France. It was stationed in Upper Canada, returning home in August the following year.

The 58th (Rutlandshire). Its first battalion embarked from the east coast of Spain, arriving at Quebec in July, 1814. Stationed at Montreal; took part in the expedition to Plattsburg; returned to Ghent, but too late for Waterloo.

The 70th (Glasgow Lowland) arrived from Ireland 24th June, 1814. Stationed in Upper Canada. It remained in Canada until 1828.

The 76th came from south of France in August, 1814. Was employed in the expedition to Plattsburg. It served in Canada for the following thirteen years.

The 82nd (Prince of Wales' Volunteers) arrived 7th August, 1814, from the south of France. Fought at Fort Erie (assault), and in other engagements on the Niagara frontier. Left Canada for Ostend in June, 1815.

The 88th (Connaught Rangers) disembarked at Quebec 3rd August, 1814, having sailed from France. Was at Plattsburg; stationed on the banks of the Richelieu. Served eleven months, during which period not one man deserted. It returned to Spithead 10th June, 1815. With the 3rd Batt—27th, 39th and 76th it formed General Robinson's Brigade.

The 89th. Its second battalion arrived at Quebec 7th August, 1814. The Light Company of the first battalion took part at Longwood and Black Rock. The regiment was also engaged at Lundy's Lane, Chrystler's Farm, Fort Erie (assault). Returned home after the peace; disbanded 24th November, 1816. It is authorized to carry "Niagara" on its colours.

The 90th (Perthshire Volunteers) came from Grenada 20th June, 1814, and was sent to Montreal. After the declaration of peace it embarked in August for Ostend. Some of its companies were quartered at Coteau-du-Lac.

The 97th (Queen's Own) arrived at York, U. C., 10th September, 1814, and proceeded to the Niagara frontier. It does not appear to have seen any fighting. In 1816 it was re-numbered the 96th, and as such was disbanded at Limerick, 10th December, 1818.

The 100th (The Prince Regent's County of Dublin Regiment). This regiment was raised in 1805. With few exceptions, all the officers and men were Irish. A wing (11 officers and 260 N. C. O. and men) were lost by shipwreck on the voyage to Quebec, 21st October, 1805. It was in the fighting line at Sackett's Harbour, Plattsburg, Chippawa, Black Rock, Fort Niagara (Grenadier Company), Fort Erie (assault). Acted as marines on the "Wolfe" and "Melville" on Lake Ontario. On the removal of the Rifle Brigade from the line in 1816 this 100th was re-numbered "the 99th." It had "Niagara" on its colours. The new 99th was disbanded at Chatham in 1818.

The 101st (The Duke of York's Irish Regiment). Raised in 1806; disbanded in 1817, as the 100th. Served in Canada 1813-14.

The 103rd* was raised in 1805. It fought at Sackett's Harbour, Plattsburg, Lundy's Lane and Fort Erie (assault). It was authorized to bear "Niagara" on its colours. Was disbanded at Chelmsford, 24th October, 1817.

The 104th (formerly New Brunswick Fencible Infantry) was raised by General M. Hunter, in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, in 1803. It was taken into the line in 1810 as the 104th. Marched on snowshoes from St. John, N. B., in the winter of 1812-13, arriving at Quebec 15th March. It took part at Sackett's Harbour (where it lost one-third of its force in killed and wounded), Fort George, Lundy's Lane, Cape Vincent (14 May), and Fort Erie (assault), losing 56 out of 80 engaged in the storming party. It was authorized to bear "Niagara" on its colours. Was disbanded at Montreal 24th May, 1817.

The Royal Newfoundland Regiment was raised in 1803; received title "Royal" in 1806. Employed as marines on Lakes Erie and Ontario. Served at Detroit; Fort Erie, 28 Nov., 12, and 17 Mar., 13; Frenchtown, Ogdensburg, York, Miami, Sackett's Harbour, Fort George, Lake Erie (Put-in-Bay); attack on Mackinac, 4th Aug., 1814,

*A General Order, 22nd December, 1812, gave Colonel Scott authority to add two militia companies to the strength of the 103rd. A bounty of $17 was offered to recruits, the length of service to be for 18 months, restricted to Canada. Each company was to have at least two militia officers.

and at the capture of the "Scorpion" and "Tigress." The regiment was reduced in 1816.

The Canadian Fencible Infantry, whose first Colonel was T. Peters, dates from July, 1803. Its light company was at Chateauguay; the regiment was also engaged at Plattsburg, Chrystler's Farm and La Colle.

The Glengarry Light Infantry Fencibles was taken on the army establishment on 25th August, 1812. Its services include Salmon River, Ogdensburg, York, Fort George, Sackett's Harbour, Oswego (light company), Lundy's Lane, Fort Erie (assault and sortie), Lyon's Creek, Mackinac (August, 1814). Granted authority to wear "Niagara" on its colours. The Canadian Fencibles and Glengarry Light Infantry were disbanded in 1816, the first at Montreal, the second at Kingston.

The Regiment de Meuron came to Canada from Malta in June, 1813. It formed one of the expedition to Plattsburg. Its uniform was red with blue facings.

The Neuchatel Regiment of De Meuron was raised in 1781 for service under the Dutch East India Company. It served at the Cape of Good Hope and Ceylon, and against the British on the Coromandel Coast, two companies being taken prisoners at Trincomalee. It passed into the British service, the Company being unable to pay its troops; was employed in India, taking part in the campaign against Tippoo and in the storming of Seringapatam. In 1807 it was quartered in England, afterwards joining the regiments of Roll and De Watteville in the Mediterranean. In 1813 it came to Canada. Like the De Watteville Regiment, it was disbanded in 1816, after 15 years in the Dutch and 20 in the British service. It was the only Swiss Regiment that served in the four quarters of the globe.

The Regiment de Watteville arrived at Quebec from Cadiz in May, 1813, and saw service at Oswego and at Fort Erie (assault and sortie). It wore red with black velvet facings.

The Bernese Regiment of Erlach (Ernest), raised in 1671, was one of the Swiss regiments in the French service during the Revolution, 1789. It declined to march against Holland with the French army on the ground that it could not be legally called upon to fight against a Protestant nation. Louis XIV. allowed its objection. It was composed entirely of Protestants. In 1792 the regiment, then in garrison at Aix, was assailed by the revolutionary mob and National Guards, being constrained to lay down its arms. The Government of Berne, indignant at this outrage, recalled the regiment from France. It remained a short time at Berne and entered the British service, under which flag it served 20 years, under the name of the "Regiment de Watteville," terminating an eventful and honourable career of a century and a half in the general disarmament that followed upon Waterloo.*

The 10th Royal Veteran Battalion were at Mackinac, Frenchtown and Miami. In connection with this corps there was a small body of "Mounted Veterans," under Lieut. Chettle, consisting, on the 15th April, 1813, of 2 sergeants, 15 privates and 17 horses.

The Royal Marines. The first and second battalion, together with the Marine Artillery, had been employed in the Chesapeake, U. S., but arrived at Halifax 13 Sept., 13, from which port the 2nd battalion, under Lt.-Col. Malcolm, with a portion of artillery, under Lieut. Anderson, sailed for Quebec on the 24th. In consequence of the defeat of Commodore Barclay on Lake Erie, the first battalion with the artillery, accompanied by the rocket detachment, was despatched from Halifax on the 9th Oct. The first battalion was engaged at Chrystler's Farm, La Colle, Lieuts. Caldwell and Barton being mentioned in despatches; also at the attack on American gun-boats, 11 May, 14. The second battalion was at Oswego, under Lt.-Col. Malcolm.

The Flank Battalion, embodied by G. O. 30th June, 1812, under Colonel Young, was composed of the flank companies of the 8th, 100th, Royal Newfoundland, Canadian Fencibles, 49th and Royal Scots, with 2 light 6 pr., under an artillery subaltern. Major Plenderleath, 49th, commanded the light, and Major De Haren, Can. Fenc., the grenadier companies.

Two light battalions were formed under a G. O. of 12th April, 1813, being composed of the right and left flank companies of the Lower Canadian Select Embodied Militia, incorporated with the light infantry of the line. Lt.-Cols. Geo. Macdonell, G. L. I. F., and MacDouall commanded the first, and Lt.-Col. Smelt, 103rd, the second

Commissioner to Upper Canada Naval Department, (temp.),

§ Was under the Quartermaster-General's Department until 24th June, 1813, when Captain O'Connor, Royal Navy, having been appointed Commissioner of the Navy Department in Upper Canada, all persons and stores were transferred over to him. (G.O. 2 June, 13.)

"The officers of the Provincial Marine received their commissions from the Commander-in-Chief in British North America, and the whole force was attached to the Department of the Quartermaster-General. On the arrival of the first detachment of the Royal Navy, these gentlemen were informed that their commissions could not be recognized by the rules of a service..... The greater part of these officers retired from the Marine and took service in the Militia, where they were permitted to risk their lives without offence to their feelings." <sup>1</sup> "They were led yesterday by Colonel Elliott and Captain McKee, and nothing could exceed their order and steadiness. A few prisoners were taken by them, during the advance, whom they treated with every humanity; and it affords me much pleasure in assuring Your Excellency that such was their forbearance and attention to what was required of them that the enemy sustained no other loss in men than what was occasioned by the fire of our batteries." (Brock's Despatch, 17 Aug., 12.)

<sup>4</sup> "The zeal and courage of the Indian Department were never more conspicuous than on this occasion, and the Indian warriors fought with their usual bravery." (Procter's Despatch, 25 Jan., 13.)

<sup>5</sup> "In this affair the Indian warriors, under the command of Captain Kerr, were the only force actually engaged; to them great merit is due, and to them I feel particularly obliged for their gallant conduct on this occasion." (Bisshop's Report to Prevost, Beaver Dams, 24 June, 13.)

"The Indian warriors behaved with great steadiness and courage, and His Excellency has much satisfaction in learning that they conducted themselves with humanity and forbearance towards the prisoners after the action." (G.O. 28 June, 13.)

<sup>6</sup> "Their conduct (the Indians) in this affair has given General de Rottenburg particular satisfaction, inasmuch as it affords proof that their zeal in the cause in which we are engaged is undiminished." (G.O. 9 Sept., 13.)

<sup>7</sup> "Lt.-Col. Elliott, in this, as well as on other occasions, is entitled to my highest commendations for his zeal and activity as Superintendent of the Indian Department; and I am happy to add that, through his exertions and that of his officers, no act of cruelty, as far as I could learn, was committed by the Indians towards any of their prisoners." (Riall's Despatch, 1 Jan., 14.)

<sup>8</sup> "This is perhaps one of the most brilliant actions, fought by Indians only, since the commencement of the war." (McKay's despatch to McDouall, 27 July, 14.)

Uniforms, &c.

Horse Guards G. O., 1 July, 11.

Staff—All General Officers are to wear one aiguillette on the right shoulder instead of epaulettes. Plain hats with the usual cord and tassels, with ostrich feathers round the brim. No other officer or soldier is to wear white feathers round the brim of the hat.

G. O. of Cavalry are to wear the cavalry feather with the star loop. Regimental cavalry officers are to wear the star loop with the dressed regimentals.

A. D. C. to G. O., Cavalry and Majors of Brigade attached to Brigades of Cavalry are to wear aiguillettes on the right shoulder.

A. D. C. to G. O., Infantry and Majors of Brigade attached to Infantry Brigades are to wear epaulettes as heretofore.

G. O. 8 June and 11 June, 11, cancelled.

G. O., Quebec, 29 Nov., 11.

Infantry Officers, with the exception of mounted officers, are to wear leggings of black cloth when on duty, and at all inspections and reviews.

Officers to wear their hats straight when on duties of parade.

Mounted Infantry Officers to wear shoulder belt and regulation sword with steel or copper scabbard.

A uniform pattern of officers' great-coat to be adopted in every corps ; the great-coat to be double-breasted ; the regimental button is to be affixed to the great coat.

Staff officers wearing single-breasted uniforms will observe the same form in their great-coats.

The distinguishing epaulettes to be worn with great-coat ; sword, belt and sash, are always to be worn outside.

Officers will on all occasions conform to the dress ordered to be worn by the troops ; a perfect uniformity to be observed in each corps with respect to fur caps and every article of dress.

All mounted officers are to provide themselves with the prescribed swords and belts.

GENERAL BROCK TO LORD LIVERPOOL, 29th Aug., 1812.

"In no instance have I witnessed greater cheerfulness and constancy than were displayed by these troops (i. e., the Militia, who voluntarily offered to accompany him to Detroit,) under the fatigue of a long journey in boats and during extremely bad weather; and it is but justice to this little band to add that their conduct throughout excited my admiration."

(Canadian Archives, Q. 315, p. 121.)

G.O.

MONTRÉAL, 4th June, 1813.

The Major General commanding has received a report from Major Taylor of the 100th Regiment, giving an account of a gallant affair which took place yesterday between the gun-boats and detachments from the garrison of Isle Aux Noix and the enemy's armed vessels "Growler" and "Eagle" from Lake Champlain, having each 11 guns with 4 officers and 45 men on board, and which ended in the capture of both vessels, after a well contested action of three hours and a half. Major Taylor speaks in high terms of the gallantry of all the officers and soldiers employed on this occasion, particularly of Lieutenant Lowe of the Marine Department, Ensigns Dawson, Gibbon and Humphries, and Acting Quarter Master Pilkington, of the 100th Regiment, with their crews, and reports the material assistance which he received from Capt. Gordon, of the Royal Artillery, Lieut. Williams, of the 100th Regiment, with the parties on shore, who contributed greatly to the capture of the enemy.

The garrison had three men wounded; the enemy one man killed and eight severely wounded.

The Major-General commanding will have much satisfaction in reporting to His Excellency the Commander of the Forces this action, which does high credit to the arrangement of Major Taylor, and to the conduct and bravery of all concerned.

G.O.

MONTREAL, 8th October, 1813.

The tocsin and other signals of alarm to be sounded in every parish within fifty miles of Montreal. All Militia, without exception, are to assemble with arms, and those who are not possessed of arms with axes, spades, and pickaxes, and repair with the least possible delay to Montreal. The Militia inhabiting the south bank of the St. Lawrence to repair to Caughnawaga; those on the banks of the Richelieu and Yamaska to repair to Lacadie and St. John's. The Militia of Montreal and the north bank of the St. Lawrence to Berthier are to repair to Montreal, where they will receive further orders.

FROM LT.-COL. HENRY CULL, 3RD BATTALION TOWNSHIPS MILITIA,
TO THE D. A. G. OF MILITIA FORCES.

HATLEY, 8th October, 1813.

In obedience to the orders of Maj. General Sir Roger Hale Sheaffe, dated the 7th August (not received till the 30th September,) I have the honour to enclose an exercise return of the 3rd Battalion of the Eastern Townships Militia. There are no arms, accoutrements or ammunition in their possession except the Cavalry, vide return, for the very few rusty, neglected fowling pieces that some few men (addicted to hunting, have to snap three or four times probably at a partridge,) are not worthy to be reckoned. The means of repairing such are generally the nearest blacksmith, if the owner has not sufficient ingenuity to tinker it himself.

(Canadian Archives.)

G.O.

Capt'n Mulcaster has represented to me that Mr. Harvie (midshipman) volunteered and made a very gallant attempt to blow up the enemy's magazine in the centre of their camp, as also to blow up their gunboats in Salmon River.

I feel particular pleasure in thus publicly making known my high approbation of this gallant young officer's conduct, and with a wish to reward his meritorious exertions I have promoted that officer to the rank of Lieutenant. Mr. Hawksworth and George Barnet (seaman,) who accompanied Mr. Harvie, have evinced a zeal highly creditable to themselves.

I take this opportunity of assuring all the officers of this squadron that their promotion will entirely depend on their own zeal, exertions and good conduct, as in all my appointments I shall be solely guided by the officers who (in my opinion) have the most merit.

Given under my hand on board H. M. Ship "Wolfe," at Kingston, this 1st day of January, 1814.

J. L. YEO.

G.O.

4th February, 1814.

Staff Adjutants.—The duties of Staff Adjutants of Militia partake in their nature of those of the Major of Brigade. He is the officer of the division of militia to which he is attached, and not the personal staff of the Inspecting Field Officer under whose immediate orders he is placed, and in case of his absence or indisposition the Staff Adjutant is to aid the senior officer in command in conducting the detail or discipline of the brigade or division of militia.

G.O.

13th April, 1814.

In consequence of the representation made to the Commander of the Forces of the distinguished conduct of Sergeant Hudson of the Frontier Light Infantry, His Excellency is pleased to appoint Sergeant Hudson to be an Ensign, vice Steele, promoted, the above appointment to take place from 20th March, 1814.

G.O.

QUEBEC, 20th June, 1815.

In consideration of the gallantry of Lieutenant Keating, of the Mississippi Volunteer Artillery, particularly at the capture of Fort McKay, at the Prairie-des-Chiens on the Mississippi River last campaign, His Excellency Lieut.-General Sir Gordon Drummond has been pleased to appoint him Fort Adjutant at the post of St. Joseph from the 25th instant inclusive, vice Lieut. Radenhurst, King's Regiment, who will proceed to join his regiment.

HEADQUARTERS CAMP, Before Fort Erie,
13th August, 1814.

Morning D.G.O.

Lieutenant-General Drummond congratulates the Army on the brilliant achievements executed last night by Capt. Dobbs of the Royal Navy and a party of seamen and marines, who, in the most gallant style, boarded, and after a short struggle carried two of the enemy's armed schooners anchored close to Fort Erie. Accident alone prevented the capture of the third schooner. Those captured are the "Somers" and "Porcupine." The former mounts two long 12-pounders, and the latter one 12. They were commanded by Lieutenants, and had on board 35 men each.

The Lieutenant-General laments to find that Lieut. Radcliffe, Commander of His Majesty's schooner "Netley," has fallen on this occasion. He was killed in the act of boarding. He will be buried at 12 o'clock, with such marks of respect as circumstances will permit. Besides Mr. Radcliffe, our loss has been only one seaman killed and four wounded.

The enemy's loss is one seaman killed, four wounded.

The whole enterprise reflects the highest credit on the ability and spirit of Captain Dobbs, and the gallant party under his command. The Lieut.-General felt convinced that it would not fail, from the spirited manner in which it was undertaken. He takes this occasion of informing the troops that he has a similar service for them to execute, and he invites corps and individuals desirous of volunteering their service on the occasion to intimate their wishes without delay, through their respective Brigadiers, to the Deputy Adjutant-General for the information of the Lieutenant-General Commanding.

This order to be read to the corps immediately.

Colours

Office of the Adjutant-General of Militia,
QUEBEC, 20th July, 1820.

Militia General Order.

The Governor-in-Chief<sup>1</sup> feels great satisfaction in having it in his power to deliver to the officers commanding the Incorporated Militia during the late war those Colours which His Majesty had been most graciously pleased to order to be presented to their Battalions, as an expression of His Royal Approbation of their services when called upon in defence of their country.

His Excellency is not ignorant of the particular circumstance which led to this particular honor being promised to these battalions, and, as considerable delay has unavoidably happened, he thinks it a favorable opportunity of declaring to the Militia of Lower Canada, by General Order, his perfect confidence in their spirit and zeal when called upon.

He will direct his attention in a particular manner to encourage and uphold the spirit of patriotism, which he esteems the best and surest defence of the country.

These Colours having been received too late to be delivered to the different battalions before they were disembodied at the Peace, it is His Excellency's pleasure that they should be placed in the charge of the undermentioned officers* until required. The Colours are lodged with the Adjutant-General of Militia, from whom the respective officers will receive them on application.

The officers commanding battalions or divisions will communicate this General Order to the officers and militiamen under their orders.

By order of His Excellency the Governor-in-Chief.
